

Modernity, availability, and application of laboratories, equipment, and software packages

No.	Laboratory / Equipment / Software	Modernity and usage characteristics	Availability	Application in the program	Primary Users
1	Computer Laboratory	Supports computer-based learning, information retrieval, report preparation, data analysis, and presentation	Available according to the class schedule and course activities	Used in courses related to technology, data analysis, report preparation, and presentation	Students/Academic Staff
2	Securities Analysis Room	Supports learning in finance, investment, and securities analysis	Available for related courses	Used to practise skills in financial data analysis, investment, and financial decision-making	Students/Academic Staff
3	Accounting Laboratory	Supports learning in accounting and business information systems	Ready for use	Used for practical training in accounting, business data preparation, and basic data analysis	Students/Academic Staff
4	SAP Software Room	Supports learning of ERP systems and business processes	Ready for use	Used in the course on applying SAP Business One in business processes	Students/Academic Staff
5	Logistics Laboratory	Supports learning in logistics, supply chain, and process simulation	Ready for use	Used in courses related to logistics, transportation, warehousing, and supply chain	Students/Academic Staff
6	E-Commerce Laboratory	Supports learning in electronic business, digital marketing, and online business operations	Ready for use	Used in courses on E-Commerce, digital marketing, and media creation	Students/Academic Staff
7	Economics Laboratory	Supports learning in economics, data analysis, and business decision-making	Ready for use	Used in courses on economics, finance, and data analysis	Students/Academic Staff
8	Language Laboratory	Supports the practice of English and foreign language skills	Ready for use	Used to develop language skills, cross-cultural communication, and the readiness of international program students	Students/Academic Staff

No.	Laboratory / Equipment / Software	Modernity and usage characteristics	Availability	Application in the program	Primary Users
9	Common Room	A recreation and learning- exchange area for international students, with a large TV screen, digital photocopier, sofas, and activity space	Available for international students	Used as a space for group work, relaxation, information exchange, and small-scale activities	Students/Academic Staff
10	HRIS Software	Software supporting learning in human resource information systems	Ready for use	Used in courses or activities related to human resource management	Students/Academic Staff
11	SAP Software	ERP system software for learning business processes	Available for students	Used to practise business processes, data integration, and business decision-making	Students/Academic Staff
12	Arena Simulation Software	Software for simulating scenarios and work processes	Available for students	Used to practise process analysis, scenario simulation, and system improvement	Students/Academic Staff
13	Flex Simulation Software	Software for simulating systems and operations	Available for students	Used to support system analysis, logistics, and operational processes	Students/Academic Staff
14	Microsoft Office 3 6 5 Software	Digital tools for document preparation, data analysis, presentation, and collaboration	Available for students	Used in all courses for report preparation, presentations, data analysis, and communication	Students/Academic Staff