

Library systems, digital library, and information resources supporting the program

No.	Information Resource / Library	Service Details	Support for the program's learning and research	Primary Users
1	Academic Resource Building, Office of Academic Resources and Information Technology	The university's central library, comprising 5 floors, serving students, staff, and the general public. It offers general services, online services, information advisory services, book borrowing-and-return services, meeting rooms, a Language Centre, and online teaching media	Supports information research, self-directed learning, and the preparation of reports, projects, and research by students and instructors	Students/Academic Staff
2	The university's electronic databases	Provides approximately 19 online electronic databases, both domestic and international, allowing access to information resources and full-text documents through the university's information network	Supports academic research and the retrieval of articles, journals, e-books, and research related to business administration, logistics, marketing, finance, economics, and technology	Students/Academic Staff
3	Faculty of Business Administration Library, 2 nd Floor, Building 2	The library of the Faculty of Business Administration, with a computer room for information retrieval, holding 39,124 Thai-language books and 10,531 English-language books. Open Monday–Friday, 08.30–18.30	Supports the teaching and learning of all 11 programs in the Faculty of Business Administration and serves as a convenient research resource for international program students	Students/Academic Staff
4	Computer Room for Information Retrieval	Provides computers for students to search for information and access online databases	Supports report preparation, information research, project development, and the use of digital databases	Students/Academic Staff
5	Books, journals, textbooks, and learning media	Holds books, textbooks, academic journals, and learning media in both Thai and English	Supports student learning in courses on business administration, management, marketing, logistics, finance, economics, and related disciplines	Students/Academic Staff
6	Integration of databases with courses	Instructors assign students to use the databases for research in preparing reports, projects, and research work	Helps develop skills in information retrieval, data analysis, the use of credible references, and self-directed learning	Students/Academic Staff