

Physical resources, facilities, and information technology supporting the program's teaching and learning management

No.	Resource / Facility	Details	Remarks	Primary Users
1	The academic buildings comprise the International Program Building (Building 3) , Lecture Building (Building 2) , Lecture Building (Building 4), and the 13-storey Lecture and Laboratory Building	1. Lecture rooms equipped with teaching and learning equipment 2. Common Room 3. Co-Working Space 4. Entrepreneur Laboratory 5. Computer Laboratory 6. Faculty Staff Room 7. Faculty of Business Administration Library	The Faculty of Business Administration Library is in the process of being relocated to Building 2	Students/Academic Staff
2.	Academic Resource Building (Central Library)	1. Meeting Room 2. Smart Classroom 3. Discussion Room	Available for use	Students/Academic Staff
3.	Books and textbooks (Faculty of Business Administration); Database systems (University)	Books and textbooks in business administration and related disciplines. List of database systems: - IEEE/IET Electronic (IEL) - SpringerLink – Journal - ACM Digital Library - American Chemical Society Journal - Emerald Management - Academic Search Ultimate - EBSCO Discovery Service (EDS) Plus Full Text - ScienceDirect - Scopus - Turnitin	Available for use; Available for use	Students/Academic Staff
4.	Software packages	- HRIS software - SAP software - Arena Simulation software - Flex Simulation software - Microsoft Office 365 software	40 seats; 120 seats; 40 seats; 40 seats; for all students	Students/Academic Staff
5.	Information systems and communication channels for students	- The oreg.mutt.ac.th system is used for student-related teaching and learning services such as registration, evaluation of instructors' teaching, student profile information, student status, etc. - The D Learn system is a course database that students can access to study online. - The program's Facebook page is used to announce news and information to students. - LINE groups for students and instructors of each year and each course group. - Microsoft Teams for each course.	Ready for use	Students/Academic Staff